

Singapore Institute of Management Global Education (SIMGE) and University Pelita Harapan (UPH)
Business Plan Competition 2016
Terms and Conditions

By submitting an Application and Business Plan to the SIMGE-UPH Business Plan Competition, each entrant listed below agrees to the following conditions:

Originality of Plan

The ideas and concepts set forth in the Business Plan is the original work of the team, and the entrant is not under any agreement or restrictions prohibiting his or her ability to disclose ideas or plans to the Competition. Organiser reserves the right in its sole discretion to disqualify any business plan that is a duplicate or substantially similar to another submission.

Compliance with Guidelines of the Competition

Each entrant has reviewed the Competition Guidelines and by his or her own signature below certifies that this entry and the team it represents complies with the Guidelines and agrees to abide by the Guidelines. Failure to comply with guidelines will result in entry disqualification and/or forfeiture of prizes.

Intellectual Property Rights

Please take note that the judges will not be signing a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) in connection with performing their duties for the competition. It is the team' responsibility to protect their intellectual property rights, if there is any.

Submission Right

Once submitted, business plans become part of the Competition and will not be returned. Entrants are advised to keep their own copies for reference. If chosen as a winner, entrants grant the Competition Organizer the right, without compensation, to publish finalist names, photographs, abstract and summary of the business plan, and video and audio recordings, for editorial, public relations, promotional, and advertising materials.

Consent Parental/Legal Guardian

Entrants under the age of 17, must seek the permission of a parent or guardian to enter. It is the responsibility of each entrant plus the entrant’s parent and/or guardian to ensure that they have read and abide by the Rules.

No Prize substitutions will be made

Prizes must be accepted as awarded. No transfer or substitution of a prize is permitted.

Judges decision is Final

All decisions made by the judges and organizer on all matters relating to the Competition will be final. The Competition organizer reserves the unrestricted right to interpret these rules, and to alter, amend or change them, at its discretion.
